Notes

See the next page for an explanation of a drawing in the manual for this section.

In each work book pack (except that for the Builder Class) there is an illustration like the one below.

Putting Together the Bible Story Chart

Busy Bee
Creation	Sin and adversity begin					Jesus came to our help	Jesus' second coming	Heaven
Sunbeams
		Jesus' birth		Jesus' life	Jesus' death	Jesus' resur- rection
Builder
						Paul	Martin Luther	Ellen White	Myself
Helping Hand
		Noah	Abraham	Moses	David	Daniel

There are two points about this chart which are not explained!

- 1 These four lines really illustrate one chart.
For best results the work of all four classes should be combined so that the children get a clear idea of where their pictures fit in to the history of this world.

- 2 The background should be coloured
The new (1996) North American Division Manual has a clear page on how to make up this chart. The first section and last section marked off in the chart in our workbook should be a Yellow background while the section in the middle should have a Purple background. The idea is that the first event the Busy Bee Class illustrates the earth BEFORE sin, while their last illustration is the world AFTER sin, hence the yellow background.
All the section in between takes place in the world of sin, hence the purple background.
